

OREGON's Parent's Rights Law -- ORS. 339.420

“Upon application of the parent or guardian of the child, or, if the child has attained the age of majority, upon application of the child, a child attending the public school may be excused from school for periods not exceeding two hours in any week for elementary pupils and five hours in any week for secondary pupils to attend weekday schools giving instruction in religion.”

U.S. SUPREME COURT, 1952

National Guidelines for Released-time Education

1. Parental permission required
2. Students are to be released from school (during the school day)
3. Classes must be conducted at an off-campus site
4. No federal funding
5. Open to all faiths

Per Release-time law, PREP4Kids is not sponsored by any public school in Multnomah, Clackamas, or Washington counties.